

Papa Murphy's Names Nik Rupp as Chief Financial Officer

March 27, 2018

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 27, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Papa Murphy's Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ:FRSH) today announced that Nik Rupp has been named Chief Financial Officer, effective April 9, 2018. As previously announced, Mark Hutchens, the incumbent Chief Financial Officer, will remain as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company.

Weldon Spangler, Chief Executive Officer of the Company, stated, "I am very pleased to welcome Nik to Papa Murphy's. His financial leadership and strategic planning expertise will add significant value to our entire team as we continue to execute on our long-term initiatives and build brand momentum. We are also fortunate to have Mark's breadth of financial acumen and experience dedicated to our Franchise Owners' profitability moving forward in his role as Chief Operating Officer."

Mr. Rupp brings more than 20 years of senior level finance and planning experience to Papa Murphy's, with a diverse skill set that includes corporate finance, financial planning and analysis, strategic planning, revenue management and compliance. He joins Papa Murphy's from Specialized Bicycle Components, Inc. where he served as the Chief Financial Officer from March 2016 to February 2018, and as global controller from January 2015 to March 2016. Prior to Specialized Bicycle Components, Inc., Mr. Rupp held several positions at Nike, Inc., including Global Controller of Nike Golf, and at Converse, Inc. in the Netherlands. Mr. Rupp began his career at Scott-Moncrieff Chartered Accountants in Glasgow, Scotland. He holds a degree in Accountancy from Glasgow Caledonian University in Glasgow, Scotland.

"I am excited to be joining the Papa Murphy's team," said Mr. Rupp. "I have admired the company for its unique and high quality product, and I look forward to working with the team to help drive growth in the business and deliver long-term value for shareholders."
